

Andrew Nicholas Lenz
Nick, The Ogre
Jan 19, 1940 - April 8, 2022

Once in awhile, a person enters your life and illuminates the dark corners of your mind and fills them with delight. Once in awhile, you are faced with a grace and a joy that takes your soul. Thank-you, Dear Ogre, for that beacon of light.

Though you can no longer carry the torch, your art, your students, and dear friends carry your light that will echo through the generations.

You are so deeply missed.

Your humble apprentice.
